

A Closer Look at Photographers' Intentions: A Test Dataset

Mathias

Lux

mlux@itec.aau.at

Oge

Marques

omarques@fau.edu

Mario

Taschwer

mt@itec.aau.at

Examples

"It was taken at the VW Classic show, back in 2006. It was my first VW Classic."

"[...] to document the return of the fishing industry to the Aral Sea. This is the site of a major ecological disaster [...] completely been destroyed [...]"

"I took this photo as a record of what i [sic] wore today"

"because i [sic] was feeling sad at that time and everything seems as "sharp" and hard to me as the endins [sic] of this plant."

Intention Data Set

- Collected from Flickr.com in 2011
- Invited uploaders to survey
- Collected 1,309 positive responses

Rated intentions on Likert scale from "strongly disagree" to "strongly agree"

I took the photo to ...

- recall a specific situation later on
- preserve a good feeling
- publish it online
- show it to friends and family
- support a task of mine
- capture a bad feeling

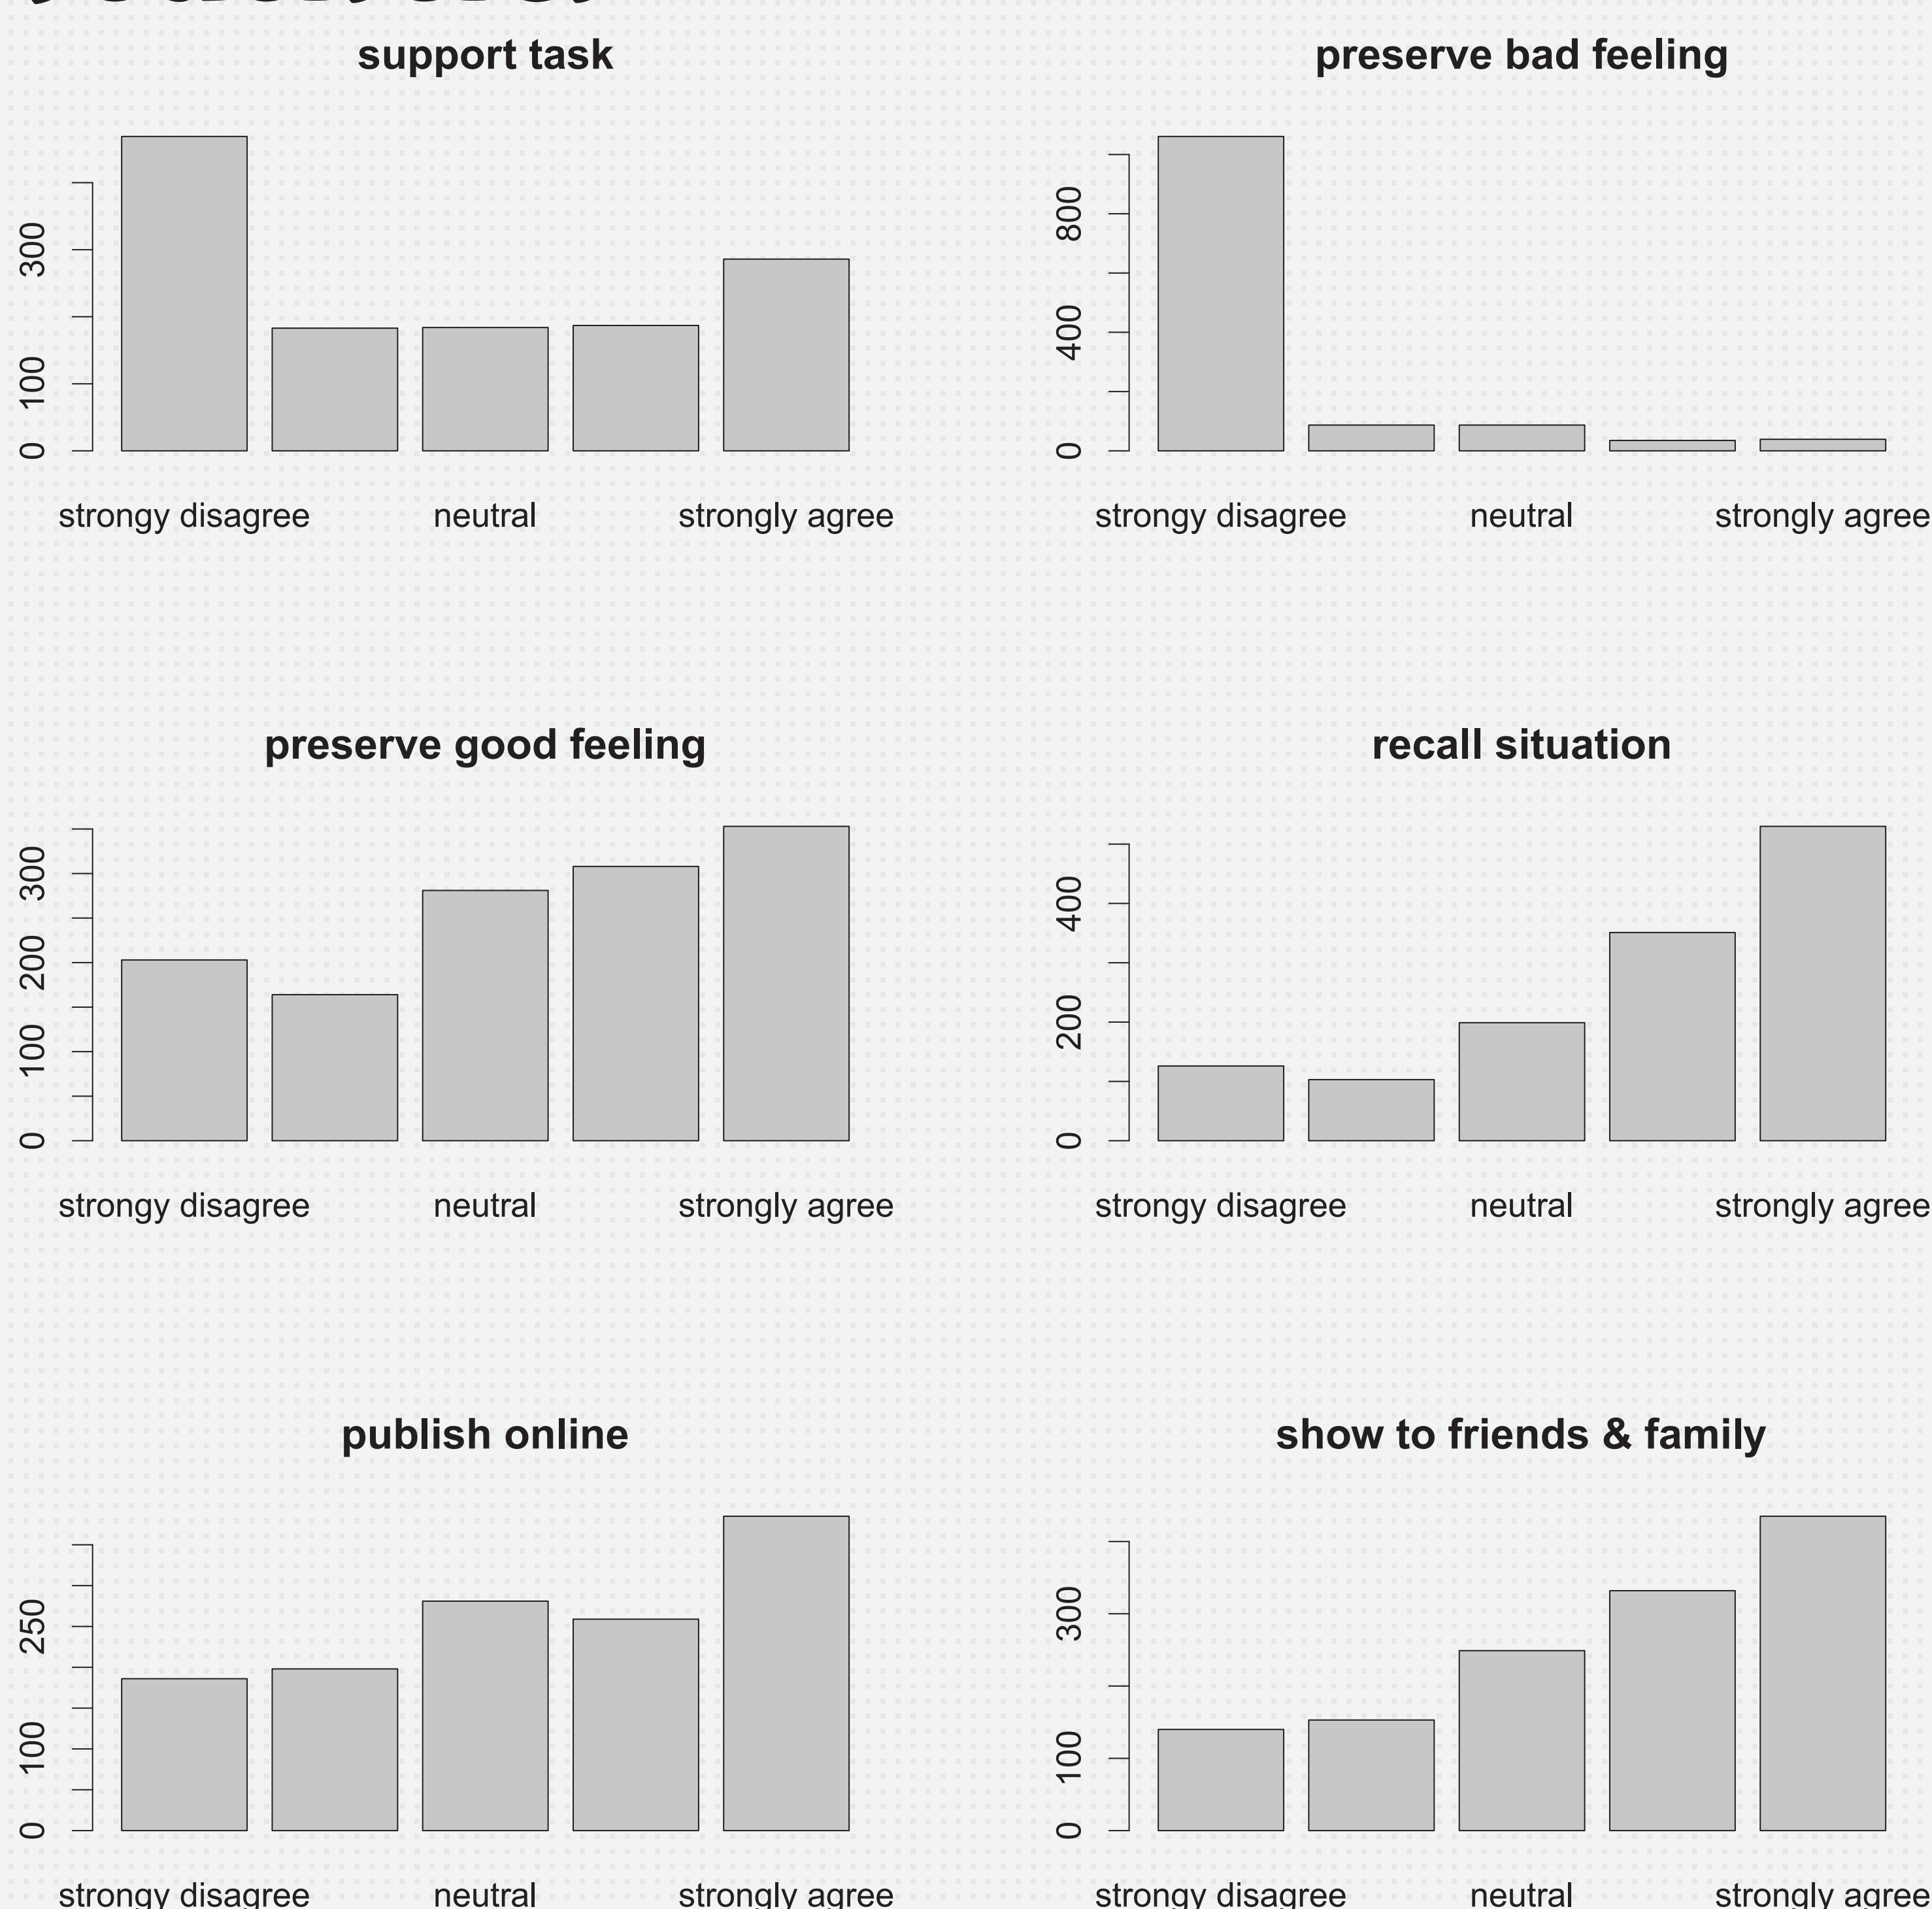

... along with free text intention description

Validation on Amazon mturk

- 5 turkers for each photo
- rated readability and descriptiveness
- classified photographers intentions from text descriptions

Statistics

Download!

<http://www.itec.uni-klu.ac.at/~mlux/intentions-data-set.htm>